Possibility of conversion to residential use
This is a great opportunity to acquire a 210 m² commercial space currently undergoing renovation, located in a strategic area with high foot traffic. The space offers various potential uses, ranging from retail or office space to even converting it into a residential property. We have an architect available to assist with the entire conversion process. The property is currently under renovation but will be delivered with the following new finishes:
• Newly installed flooring
• High-quality new windows
• Open-plan space, ready to be adapted to suit your project needs
