Waking up each morning with the sea on the horizon is a privilege that transforms routine into a unique sensory experience. This three-bedroom, one-bathroom apartment, with unobstructed sea views and sold furnished, represents that opportunity to live facing the endless blue, where light and the sea breeze become an essential part of daily life. Sea views are not just an aesthetic detail; they are a way of life. The constant presence of the Mediterranean brings calm, serenity, and a direct connection with nature. Watching the water move, observing how it changes color with the times of day, and feeling the gentle breeze enter through the windows creates an atmosphere that...(Ask for More Details!)
